THE WOMAN BEHIND THE NAME

Nancy Moreland began her writing career 21 years ago as a newspaper reporter. She went on to write for national and international publications. In addition to mainstream press, Nancy writes for business, hospitals and health care providers, the tourism and hospitality industry and higher education. She has provided on-site writing support at meetings and trade shows and has edited and managed production of four magazines. Winner of eight writing awards, Nancy's business philosophy centers on creativity, integrity and reliability.

If Nancy's name is associated with a freelance writing project, you can be certain it will reflect her commitment to excellence.

"Nancy, you have made the transition of the "Real Estate Business" magazine to Lionheart's responsibility the smoothest one that I can recall in the 19-year history of the company. Your professionalism, hard work and dedication have contributed to taking the magazine to a new level of quality in coverage and content."

– John Llewellyn, President, Lionheart Publishing, Inc.

"When Nancy Moreland is working on an assignment for you, you can relax. She is dependable, thorough, professional and she meets deadlines. She is a valuable part of our magazine's success."

- Jennifer Bryon Owen, Director of Creative Services, Agnes Scott College

"I just wanted to convey my thanks and appreciation for the outstanding work you've done. It was a monumental task of pulling together disparate pieces of info, synthesizing them and then writing content that 'spoke' to our various audiences. You did it all beautifully."

- Christine Kotler, Assistant Vice President, Marketing and Public Relations, Baptist Health South Florida
